DAY 1: ARRIVAL IN NORTH SUMATRA MEDAN - TRANSPORT TO THE HOTEL

Selamatdatang! Welcome to North Sumatra, Medan.

Arrival at the international airport in Medan. Upon arrival at Medan International Airport, your driver will take you to your Medan hotel.

Accommodation:

Swiss-belin Hotel, Medan 3* (Deluxe Room)

DAY 2: MEDAN TO TANGKAHAN (B)

After breakfast, you will be picked up by your driver and headed towards Tangkahan at GunungLeuser National Park. Along the way, visit the Maimum Palace, built in 1888 for the Sultan of Deli. Then we go to the "Mesjid Raya", a large mosque built at the same time before going to the Chinese temple "Gunung Timur". Afterwards, a four-hour drive through the beautiful nature of north Sumatra towards Tangkahan in the GunungLeuser National Park (UNESCO World Heritage Site). Tangkahan used to be known for illegal timber mining and hunting. Since 2001, park rangers with elephants have been patrolling the area around Tangkahan to protect the jungle.

Accommodation:

Linnea Lodge, Tangkahan (Standard Room)

DAY 3: BATH WITH ELEPHANTS - JEEP RIDE TO BUKIT LAWANG (B)

After breakfast, you can wash and bathe the park rangers' elephants along with the mahout (elephant guide) in the nearby river. Afterwards, head to Tangkahan with your guide on a first two-hour hike into the jungle. Then, take a jeep in about 3 hours towards Bukit Lawang, on the other side of the national park, known for its orangutan rehabilitation programs. Upon arrival in Bukit Lawang, spend the afternoon relaxing at your lodge or exploring the small village of Bukit Lawang on foot.

Accommodation:

Ec lodge, Bukit Lawang (Standard Room)

DAY 4: JUNGLE TREKKING BUKIT LAWANG - OVERNIGHT IN A TENT (B, L, D)

After breakfast, head to Gunung Leuser National Park on a 6-hour hike in search of orangutans and other wild animals. In the late afternoon, you'll find a suitable spot on the river with your guide, where you'll set up camp for the night. Spend the night in a simple tent in the middle of the rainforest, where your guide will cook you a delicious dinner.

Accommodation:

Bukit Lawang

DAY 5: JUNGLE TREKKING BUKIT LAWUNG (B)

After breakfast at your camp, continue on a 4-hour trek through the jungle. Your jungle trek ends at a river where you'll cruise back to your hotel on a tire in about 20 minutes. In the afternoon you can relax in your lodge or cool off in the river.

Accommodation:

Eco Lodge, Bukit Lawang (Deluxe Room)

DAY 6: YOGYAKARTA CITY TOUR - PRAMBANAN TEMPLE (B)

After breakfast it is time to say goodbye to the jungle and your journey continues to Berastagi in the highlands of the Karo. The drive to Berastagi takes about 5 hours through the breathtaking nature of Sumatra with a view of the two volcanoes Sibayak and Sinabung. Berastagi is located at about 1300 meters and thus has a much cooler climate of the Gunung Leuser National Park. Along the way, visit Mary Annai Church and Lumbini Park, where the Buddhist Shwedagon Pagoda from Myanmar was recreated. Before heading to the hotel in Berastagi, visit one of the many local fruit markets where you can stock up on fresh exotic fruits.

Accommodation:

Grand Mutiara, Berastagi 3* (Super Deluxe Room)

DAY 7: SIBAYAK - BERASTAGI - TRANSFER TO LAKE TOBA (B)

Today, after breakfast, you'll head to Sibayak Volcano with your guide. The ascent to the volcano Sibayak (2172m) is relatively easy and takes only about an hour from the parking lot. On the way back, relax your muscles with a hot bath in the hot springs of Raja Berneh. In the afternoon, travel with your driver to Medan. Along the way, you'll stop at Dokan, a traditional BatakKaro village with traditional Batak houses. Afterwards you will visit the SipisoPiso waterfall. In the afternoon you will reach Parapat, from where you will take a ferry in 45 minutes to the island of Samosir in the middle of Lake Danau.
