Back in Time in Progressive City

Jakarta is the capital city of the Republic of Indonesia. Jakarta is a huge, sprawling metropolis, home to over 10 million people with diverse ethnic group backgrounds from all over Indonesia. During the day, the number increases with commuters making their way to work in the city and flock out again in the evenings. The amazing historical heritage in West Jakarta is Museum Fatahillah and its surrounding Kota Tua or Old Jakarta district is where you can ride a classic bike to tour the area. The new iconic destination in West Jakarta is the contemporary art exhibition venue named Museum Macan, where Yayoi Kusama's artworks are displayed.

Then, proceed to Museum Fatahillah – Completed in 1627, the building initially served as the Dutch East Indies Company's town hall. It provides the historical background of Jakarta through display of old maps and antiquities including furniture and porcelain used by Dutch rulers. Continue to Puppet Museum – This puppetry museum has displays of wayang puppets from all parts of Indonesia and some other parts of Southeast Asia as well. The wooden and leather puppets displayed here represent the finest craftsmanship in this particular form of traditional theatre. Passing through China Town and Old Town of Jakarta (known as the Old Batavia) which maintains its old artistic style of building during the Dutch colonialism.
