DAY 3: KOTA TUA - MONAS - SARINAH - ISTIQLAL MOSQUE - JAKARTA CATHEDRAL - SETU BABAKAN (OPTIONAL) (B, L, D)

After breakfast at the hotel, now we will take you to the famous Kota Tua Jakarta (Jakarta Old Town), where you can see the face of Jakarta when it was named Batavia on 1800s where most of the building from the Dutch colonialism was still standing and used as an office. Then we continue our journey to the icon of Jakarta, Monumen Nasional (MONAS). The National Monument is a 132 m obelisk in the centre of Merdeka Square, Central Jakarta. It is the national monument of the Republic of Indonesia, built to commemorate the struggle for Indonesian independence. Construction began in 1961 under the direction of President Sukarno.

After visiting MONAS, we are going to visit the new and improve the shopping icon of Jakarta, Sarinah. Sarinah is an Indonesian retail company owned by PT Aviassi Pariwisata Indonesia, a state-owned holding company. Its flagship store, Sarinah Building in M.H. Thamrin Street of Central Jakarta, was the first skyscraper to be built in Jakarta as well as the first modern department store in the city.

Then, we are going to take you to visit Istiqlal Mosque in Jakarta which is the largest mosque in Southeast Asia and the ninth largest mosque in the world in terms of worshipper capacity. Built to commemorate Indonesian independence, this national mosque of Indonesia was named "Istiqlal", an Arabic word for "independence". Plus, we are going to visit the symbol of religion peace in Jakarta, the Cathedral. This church building was inaugurated in 1901 and was built with neo-gothic architecture from Europe, namely the architecture that was very commonly used to build church buildings several centuries ago.

Further, if you wish to visit Setu Babakan, we can have a short stop before we go back to the hotel. Setu Babakan Betawi Cultural Village or Setu Babakan is a cultural park of Betawi people, which is located at Srengseng Sawah, Jagakarsa, Jakarta. The village is about 5 kilometers southeast of Ragunan Zoo at the center of the Betawi Cultural Village, a site considered as part of the cultural heritage of Jakarta, which is devoted to the preservation of the indigenous Betawi culture.

To finish the day, we will let you have a free time at the hotel where you could discover more of Jakarta nightlife or you can grab dinner at the hotel of your preference.
